

Johnson Woods State Nature Preserve

From the diary of pioneer Caleb Atwater:

"...Most of our timber trees will soon be gone, and no means are yet resorted to (to) restore the forests which we are destroying. In many places even now woodlands are more valuable than cleared fields."

INVITATION

We invite you to get involved in the protection of Ohio's natural areas and scenic rivers by following some of these suggestions:

- Raise your awareness. Visit other State Nature Preserves and Scenic Rivers around Ohio. There's one near you! Contact us for more information.
- Speak out. Let others know how you feel about State Nature Preserves and Scenic Rivers. Public leaders cannot support the Division if they do not know that it is one of your priorities.
- Check us! Use your State Income Tax Form to donate a portion of your refund to Nature Preserves, Scenic Rivers and Endangered Species. This program provides important funding for our Division.
- Call. We want to hear from you. Call us with your questions or comments about State Nature Preserves and Scenic Rivers.

Your personal, active support can play a vital role in the continued protection of Ohio's natural landscape.
